Lackawanna, N.Y. – The City of Lackawanna is partnering with Rite Aid Pharmacy and Erie County Senior Services to provide Covid-19 vaccinations to Lackawanna residents age 16 and older at a pop-up clinic to be held today, Wednesday April 7, 2021 from 9AM to 9PM at the Lackawanna Senior Center, 230 Martin Road.

Covid-19 vaccines are being provided to over 280 residents who pre-registered for the clinic. Rite Aid is providing the Pfizer vaccine for this pop-up clinic, which requires two doses.

"Since vaccines began rolling out weeks ago, I've been working to bring a convenient pop-up clinic to Lackawanna. My thanks to Rite Aid and our friends at Erie County Senior Services for helping to make this possible," said Mayor Annette Iafallo
