FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

City of Lackawanna Announces Return of Thursday Night Concert Series Starting July 29

Popular Free Summer Series Returns After 2020 Hiatus Due to Covid-19

Lackawanna, N.Y. (Thursday, July 8, 2021). Today, the City of Lackawanna announced the return of its popular Thursday Night Concert Series at Galanti Park starting July 29. The concert series was cancelled in 2020 due to the Covid-19 pandemic.

The Lackawanna Thursday Night Concert Series lineup for the summer of 2021 will include the following bands:

July 29	Willie May Blues Band
August 6	1980 Something (Hard Rock)
August 12	Special Delivery Polka Band
August 19	The Strangers (Classic Rock)
August 26	Silver Xtreme (Classic Rock)

“We’re excited to resume our Thursday Concert Series, which has become a summer tradition for many residents and friends of Lackawanna,” said Mayor Annette Iafallo. “We have a great musical lineup scheduled and welcome all members of the community to join in celebrating the summer season at Galanti Park!”

The Lackawanna Thursday Concert Series is free and open to the public. Each of the scheduled shows will start at 6:00PM. Galanti Park is located at 230 Martin Road, behind the Lackawanna Senior Center.

With Covid-19 restrictions lifted across New York State, vaccinated individuals are not required to wear masks while attending a concert performance. Non-vaccinated individuals should continue to wear masks/practice social distancing per current CDC guidelines.
