

Renaissance Commerce Park

(former Bethlehem Steel Plant Site - Lackawanna, N.Y.)

The Erie County Industrial Development Agency (ECIDA) manages Renaissance Commerce Park, a redevelopment effort conducted on approximately 240 acres at the former Bethlehem Steel plant site in Lackawanna, N.Y. involving the federal, New York State, Erie County and City of Lackawanna governments.

The property is adjacent to deep-water port access at the Port of Buffalo, the first major U.S. Port Call encountered when entering the Great Lakes. The Port consists of 28 terminals and features a 230-ton American crawler crane.

For more information on available parcels at Renaissance Commerce Park in Lackawanna, N.Y, visit www.ecidany.com and click the Renaissance Commerce Park tab at the top.

