A MESSAGE FROM MAYOR ANNETTE IAFALLO – TRAVEL BAN LIFTED AT NOON TODAY, NOVEMBER 21 / OTHER STORM UPDATES

Lackawanna remains in a state of emergency however, the travel ban will be changed to a travel advisory as of noon today, Monday November 21st.

Given the significant amount of snow removal still remaining, no unnecessary travel is recommended.

In addition:

– Lackawanna City Hall and Senior Center will remain closed on Tuesday, November 22nd.

– Garbage pickup for Tuesday November 22nd is also cancelled.

Residents who are facing a life threatening emergency should dial 911.

If you need assistance for dialysis or other critical medical needs, call the Erie County Emergency Operations Center at 716-651-2090.

I thank everyone for their patience and cooperation. Stay safe.

Annette
